Lunch & Networking

2021-2022 HBA-NJ PRESIDENT

Tabatha Castro, Esq.

President & Managing Partner, The Castro Firm, Inc.

Born to Puerto Rican parents, Ms. Castro is a native of New York and a graduate of the University at Buffalo and Buffalo State College, earning her Bachelor of Arts degrees in Latin American Studies and Legal Studies and her Master of Science degree in Criminal Justice. She attended Widener University School of Law, where she was on the Moot Court Honor Society Executive Board and founded and became the first President of the Latin American Law Student Association.

Ms. Castro is the President and Managing Attorney of The Castro Firm, Inc., a minority and woman-owned regional law firm specializing in New Jersey, Delaware, Pennsylvania and Florida legal matters. She is licensed to practice law in the states of New Jersey and Delaware. Ms. Castro is admitted to practice law before the United States Supreme Court, Federal District Courts of New Jersey and Delaware, the Delaware Supreme Court and New Jersey Supreme Court.

Tabatha worked as a law clerk and then became associated with the law firm of Doroshow, Pasquale, Krawitz & Bhaya. Thereafter, she practiced for the regional defense firm of Marshall, Dennehey, Warner, Coleman & Goggin as an attorney specializing in the area of insurance defense. Recognizing her legal ability, she became associated with Rapposelli, Castro & Gonzales and ultimately became the President and Managing Attorney of The Castro Firm, Inc. in 2006. The Castro Firm, Inc. has grown to become a respected regional law firm since then.

Ms. Castro serves on various boards. Currently, she is the President of the Hispanic Bar Association of New Jersey and is a Past-President of the Delaware Hispanic Bar Association. She is the Region IV Immediate Past President for the Hispanic National Bar Association. Tabatha was a Past-President for the Multi-cultural Judges and Lawyers Section of the Delaware State Bar Association. Ms. Castro serves as a pro bono attorney for South Jersey Legal Services and sat on the Board of Directors for the Hispanic Family Center in Camden, NJ, United Way of Delaware and more.

KEYNOTE SPEAKER

M. Teresa Ruiz

New Jersey State Senator

Senator Ruiz became the first Puerto Rican elected to the Senate when she was elected in 2007. Since then, she has been re-elected three times. Senate President Pro Tempore, Senator Ruiz is the first Latina to serve in leadership and is also the chair of the Senate Education Committee. Throughout her time in the Senate, she has fought for equity in educational spaces, acting as the leading force in expanding access to early childhood education throughout the state. She also spearheaded the law to build on the federal free and reduced meal program so that all students who qualify for the program could receive breakfast and lunch at no cost, eliminating the reduced category. Furthermore, she has sponsored laws to increase diversity within school curriculum and strengthen the Amistad Commission.

The Senator has also focused on expanding employment opportunities for underserved communities, sponsoring bill packages to expand apprenticeship programs in the state and increase teacher diversity. The apprenticeship package, which was enacted, created more accessible pathways to careers in high growth industries by incentivizing business participation in apprenticeship programs. In addition, she has taken a targeted approach at mitigating the barriers which prevent people of color from obtaining and retaining full time teaching positions, advancing legislation to establish educator apprenticeship programs, provide loan redemption opportunities and expand alternate route programs.

Senator Ruiz was also the prime sponsor of a 2020 law to allow candidates to use campaign funds to cover childcare expenses incurred due to campaign activities.

The Senator received a bachelor's degree from Drew University. She was a 2010 Aspen Institute Rodel Fellow, and a graduate of the Harvard Kennedy School's Senior Executives in State and Local Government Program. She is vice chair of the Essex County Democratic Party and is deputy chief of staff to Essex County Executive Joseph N. DiVincenzo, Jr. She served as a delegate to the Democratic National Conventions in 2004, 2008, 2012 and 2016. Among all of her accomplishments, the title she holds most dear is that of a mother.

2022 WOMEN'S EMPOWERMENT LEADERSHIP & LAW CONFERENCE CO-CHAIR

Alba Aviles, Esq.

Associate, Fisher & Phillips LLP

Alba V. Aviles works with employers on resolving issues in a creative and cost-effective manner. She has defended management in traditional labor and employment litigation, including discrimination, harassment, unfair labor practice charges, restrictive covenants, and retaliation disputes before state and federal courts and administrative agencies. Additionally, Alba is experienced at handling a wide variety of employment matters, including drafting/updating corporate policies, procedures, and handbooks to comply with federal, state, and local law, and handled workplace investigations. She has also conducted workplace trainings in Spanish for more than 100 employees. Alba has first-chaired labor arbitration proceedings.

Alba has a demonstrated commitment to pro-bono matters, having provided more than 100 hours of pro bono work. The Superior Court of New Jersey has regularly appointed Alba as court-appointed attorney for Spanish-speaking alleged incapacitated individuals in guardianship proceeding matters.

Prior to practicing law, she served as a law clerk to The Honorable Walter Koprowski, Jr., now retired, when he served as the Presiding Judge in the New Jersey Superior Court's Chancery Division - General Equity/Probate Part in Essex County. During law school, she was a legal intern for the Honorable Michael Shipp, U.S.D.J., while he served as a magistrate, and the Honorable Faith Hochberg, U.S.D.J. in the District of New Jersey.
